Numb. 4527

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday March 28. to Thursday March 31. 1709.

Vienna, March 20. N. S.

THE Difference between his Pruſſian Majeſty and the City of Cologn, occaſioned by the Inſult given to his Majeſty's Miniſter in the Exerciſe of his Religion in his own Family, being lately adjuſted by the Mediation of the Elector Palatine and the Biſhop of Munſter, the Pope's Internuncio and Reſident at Cologn gave in a Proteſtation in Writing againſt that Agreement, wherein he invelghs againſt that Prince, and the Proteſtant Religion in general. His Majeſty has ordered his Reſident here to complain of this Proceeding to the Emperor, as not only injurious to the Dignity of an Elector, tending to create Diſcord between the Princes and States of the Empire, but alſo a manifeſt Violation of the Treaties of Religion and fundamental Laws of the Empire, which acknowledge and receive the Proteſtant Religion, as well as the Roman. The King proceeds to deſire his Imperial Majeſty that he would reject the Proteſtation, order that it be not Regiſtred with the other Tranſactions of the Treaty, and command the Internuncio to leave the Territories of the Empire, as a Promoter of Sedition. This Injury was at the ſame time repreſented to the Evangelick Deputies at Ratisbonne; in regard that it is a general Concern, his Pruſſian Majeſty deſires all the Proteſtant Princes to join in a Remonſtrance to the Emperor, in order to fruſtrate the Attempts of the See of Rome againſt their religious Rights. The 14th Inſtant Marſhal Heiſter received an Expreſs from Lower Hungary, with an Account of a conſiderable Advantage gained by Colonel Schilling, Commander of the Bazeil Regiment of Dragoons, over the Hungarians. The Colonel being adviſed that 4000 Hungarians, with 300 Waggons laden with Ammunition and Proviſion, and three Pieces of Cannon, were marching to poſſeſs themſelves of the Paſs of Schickwar, from which they were very lately diſlodged, purſued the Enemy with his own Regiment of Dragoons, and ſome Detachments of Horſe and Foot; he came up with them and attacked them in the Night-time at Bolgardi, a Village two Miles diſtant from Alba Regalis. The Hungarian Cavalry gave way at the firſt Onſet, but the Infantry made a vigorous reſiſtance, 'till the Germans had fired the Village in ſeveral Places; after which they alſo retired in great Confuſion, leaving their Cannon, Ammunition and Proviſions a Prey to the Germans. Sixteen hundred Hungarians were killed on the Spot, and 400 burnt in the Village; Colonel Schilling has conducted all the Booty to Alba Regalis, except ſeven Colours, which he ſent hither. The loſs on the German ſide is very inconſiderable. The Emperor has lately made ſome Alterations in the manner of proceeding in Council, and appointed a Committee of Council to examine and prepare all ſuch Matters of Importance as ſhall be laid before the Council of State. The Committee conſiſts of eight Perſons, the Prince of Salm as Preſident, Prince Eugene of Savoy, Count Mansfeldt, Count Trautſon the Great Chamberlain, Count Windiſchgratz, Baron Seiler, Count Sintzendorf, Count Wratiſlaw, and Monſieur Buol as Referendary. Yeſterday was ſolemnized here with great Magnificence, it being the Feaſt of St. Joſeph, and the Emperor bearing that Name. In the Morning the Empreſs-Dowager ſerved thirteen poor Men, a Woman and a Boy, at Table, according to the uſual Ceremony of the Day: About Noon the Emperor and Empreſs, attended by the chief Officers of the Houſhold on Horſeback and richly dreſſed, went to the Church of the Carmelite Nuns, dedicated to St. Joſeph, and having heard Maſs dined in the Nunnery: In the Evening they were entertained with a Conſort of Muſick at Court, and his Majeſty made a Promotion of ſome Gentlemen of the Bed-chamber on this occaſion. The Danube has drowned a long Tract of Ground near this Town, and done conſiderable Damage to ſeveral Villages on the other ſide of the River.

Berne, March 27. N. S. The laſt Letters from Milan adviſe, that by their Accounts from Naples the Troops deſigned for Barcelona were embarking with all poſſible Diligence, as well as the Artillery and Ammunition for the ſame Service; that 2000 Men were to be detached from the Troops that were in that Dutchy, and to be ſent to Catalonia, which, joined to the Body of Troops embarked at Naples, would make a Body of 6000 Men. The ſame Letters add, that there was advice from Rome that the Emperor had approved and ratified the Treaty lately concluded there by the Marquis de Prié; and that Admiral Byng was expected with his Squadron at Leghorn.

Berlin, March 30. N. S. All things are adjuſted which were neceſſary towards the Augmentation of his Majeſty's Troops with 6200 Men, for the Service of the next Campaign; and Brigadier Grumkow is ſet out towards Bruſſels with full Inſtructions on that Subject. Monſieur Montargues, Quarter-Maſter-General of his Majeſty's Forces in the Low-Countries, goes very ſuddenly to Weſel to ſettle the reſpective Quarters of the Troops which are to arrive in the Country of Cleves on the 14th of the next Month. General Flemming is expected here this day, accompanied by a Gentleman of the Bed-chamber to King Auguſtus. The latter has Inſtructions to make his Maſter's Compliments to the King. The Dutcheſs of Holſtein-Beck ſet out two Days ago towards Hanover, where that Princeſs has a Claim of certain Lands by the Death of two Princes of her Family. The Princeſs, Daughter to Her Highneſs, is to be married at Beverling to the Eldeſt of the Princes of Culmbach; the Privy-Counſellor Oſten has Directions from the King to attend the Princeſs thither. Wedneſday laſt being the Birth-day of the Princeſs-Royal, the Court went out of Mourning for that Day, and obſerved it with much Solemnity. They report from Wilda, by Letters of the 17th Inſtant, that his Swediſh Majeſty was advanced within 20 Miles of Moſcow, and that the Czar was at Veronitz. Advices from Moſcow, of the 27th of February, ſay, that the Swedes had ſurprized a Detachment of Horſe commanded by Prince Menzikow and General Renne.

Hague, April 5. N. S. On the 31ſt of the laſt Month Major-General Cadogan arrived here from Bruſſels, and, it is thought, Prince Eugene will come hither as ſoon as he hears of the Arrival of the Duke of Marlborough, who is expected in a few Days. The Province of Groninghen hath at laſt agreed to borrow 350000 Florins, on the Security of the States-General, to pay the Arrears due to the Troops in their Pay, and to make up their Quota for the publick Service. The Lottery which the States erected for raiſing two Millions of Guilders was full in few Days. Beſides the one thouſand Palatine Recruits which are already at the Texel, a Palatine Battalion in this Service hath been ſent thither, in order to be alſo embarked in the Squadron, which is ready to ſail for the Mediterranean; and his Highneſs the Elector Palatine hath ordered another Battalion to march to the Low-Countries. They write from Bruſſels, that Recruits are continually paſſing there for the Troops of the Allies, and that ſeveral Regiments were already compleated. Theſe Advices add, that the Conferences which were held at Leuze for the Exchange of Priſoners were ſuddenly broken off; but it is thought they will ſoon be renewed. We hear from Ghent, that the Officers which are in Garriſon there had diſtributed Tents to the Troops, that they may be ready to take the Field on the firſt Orders. It hath been reſolved to build ſeveral Redoubts along the Lys, to ſecure the Navigation of that River. The Fortifications which are to be raiſed at Deinſe are already marked out, and they are prepared to begin the Work as ſoon as the Seaſon will permit. We hear that Mareſchal Villars having made a Review of the Troops and Magazines on the Frontiers, found them in a very ill Condition. All our Letters from France mention the